Listed below are the answers to some of our most frequently asked questions.

About Read to Succeed

What is Read to Succeed?

Read to Succeed is a free educational program sponsored by Six Flags Theme Parks. The program encourages students in grades K through 6 to engage in recreational reading. Students who complete six hours of recreational, non-school-related reading are eligible to earn a free admission ticket to a participating Six Flags Theme Park. Teachers whose classes participate and complete the program are also eligible to earn a free ticket if they submit the reading hours of at least 1 student. Only students and teachers/coordinators in schools that are registered are eligible to participate. Schools must be within a 250-mile radius of a participating Six Flags theme park in order to participate.

What is New This Year?

How has the program changed from last year?

We have taken steps to make the registration and submission process even easier than before. The online registration will have helpful and relevant FAQ's on the screen that correspond to that step in the registration process. As soon as you register, you will have access to your online account. Your online account will be your source for program information and communication. You can log students' reading hours in your online account, get program alerts and track ticket delivery. To log student hours, you will simply input your students' names, grade, hours read and click "Insert." Then mail your students' completed handwritten reading logs to Six Flags Read to Succeed, PO Box 113, North Haven, CT 06473. All logs will be verified prior to ticket distribution. When the program closes at 5pm Central Standard Time on March 1, 2013, all students who you entered into your online account will be submitted automatically.

A free Six Flags ticket will be distributed to teachers who save the reading hours of 1 or more of their students in the online portal. Students who read for six hours will earn one free park ticket regardless of the number of classmates that participate. Coordinators will also continue to receive a free Six Flags ticket for their help with ticket distribution.

Signing Up for the 2011-2012 ProgramHow can I sign up my school for the program?

Registration is easy! Visit sixflags.com/read. You can start by clicking on "Register for a new account" and follow the easy step by step process. All schools will be verified to determine eligibility. Please be sure you sign up with your school's physical address for this verification. We will also need your physical address to ship the tickets to you in the Spring. We cannot ship to a PO Box. For help, send us a note by clicking the "Contact Us" link (below your name, once you are logged in).

Who needs to register?

All teachers and coordinators that want to participate in the program and receive a free Six Flags ticket must register online. Teachers and coordinators must register before they can log their students' reading hours into their online account.

My school has participated in the past. Will we receive registration materials in the mail?

No. All program materials are available online. You will not receive a registration packet in the mail. Once your online account is set up, you will find the program materials in your online account.

My school participated last year. Will we automatically be registered for the 2012-2013 school year?

No. Your school will not automatically be registered if you participated last year or in previous years. Every participant is required to re-register for the 2012-2013 program.

Once my registration is complete, when will I need to use my email address and password?

You will need your email address and password to log in to your online account, where you can find program materials and log your students' reading hours. Your online account will be an important way for Six Flags to communicate with you.

Is there a deadline for registration?

The deadline for registration is March 1, 2013 at 5pm Central Standard Time. Please note that this is also the deadline for entering and saving students' names and reading hours in your online account.

Mailed Programs

In previous years, I received a program in the mail. Will I receive one this year?

Schools will not receive a mailed program this year. All resources are available in your online account, including a downloadable student reading log and parent letter.

Parent Materials

Where can I find the student reading log and the parent letter?

For copies of the student reading log and the parent letter in English and Spanish, you will need to complete the registration and then log in to your online account. The reading log and parent letter will be available in your online account.

Number of Tickets Per Person

Can students earn more than one ticket?

No, students can only earn one ticket each, even if they complete more than 6 hours of recreational reading.

How can teachers earn a free Six Flags ticket?

Teachers can earn a free Six Flags ticket if at least 1 or more of their students participate. Once a teacher records this information in their online account, their account will update to include one free teacher ticket.

Can teachers earn more than one ticket if they have more than one class that participates?

No, teachers can only receive one ticket each. In addition, each school will be required to select a coordinator. The coordinator will also receive one free ticket for organizing the program.

Will teachers earn a ticket if they do not submit student reading hours online?

Teachers must save the reading hours of at least 1 student in their online account in order to receive a free Six Flags ticket. If the school coordinator submits the students for the teacher under the coordinator's account, the teacher will not receive a free Six Flags ticket.

Does the coordinator have to enter in a certain number of student reading hours in order to receive a ticket?

No. The coordinator will receive a free Six Flags ticket regardless of the number of student reading hours that he/she enters. Please note that there must be at least one student in their school that completes the program and is submitted into an online account at their school for a coordinator to earn a ticket.

Will a coordinator receive more than one ticket if they enter in the student reading hours for their entire school?

No. A coordinator will only receive one free Six Flags ticket no matter how many student reading hours they submit online.

Will there be a parent discount?

For the best deals and discounts, parents can purchase additional tickets at SixFlags.com.

The Coordinator

What exactly is the coordinator's job?

The coordinator will encourage eligible teachers and students to participate in the program. The coordinator will have access to choose and change the park choice for the entire school. The coordinator will be responsible to serve as the point of contact for the school's Six Flags ticket distribution in the Spring of 2013. Each school's tickets will be shipped to the school coordinator. It is the coordinator's responsibility to distribute these tickets to the all participating teachers within the school upon receipt of the tickets. Every coordinator will receive one free admission ticket for organizing the program.

Can coordinators submit student reading hours online?

Coordinators must sign up and register for the program as their school's designated coordinator. While the coordinator will be able to submit students' reading hours online, it is not required. If the coordinator is a teacher whose students are participating in the program, they would be responsible for logging their students' reading hours online. They may also save the reading hours of other classes in their school via their online account, but they will be the only person (besides the students) who will receive a free Six Flags ticket. Teachers will not receive a free Six Flags ticket unless they log the reading hours for at least 1 student through their online account. Coordinators may also choose to serve only as the recipient and distributor of tickets, in which case each teacher would be responsible for inputting their participating students' hours. As a coordinator, your ticket will already be accounted for in the total number of tickets (whether you have logged student reading hours or not).

Can I begin logging my students' reading hours if my school does not have a coordinator?

Yes. You can register as a teacher and set up your online account and enter your student names even if your school does not have a coordinator. However, by the end of the program all schools are required to have coordinator to ship the tickets to.

Does the coordinator receive a ticket?

The coordinator will receive one free admission ticket for organizing the program, unless he/she is a teacher and is already receiving a ticket for submitting his/her students' reading hours. Only one ticket per person will be provided.

Can the coordinator view and oversee the reading hours entered by other teachers?

Yes. The coordinator can access the activity of the teachers by logging into their online account.

Is it possible to change the school coordinator once one has been selected?

Yes, the current coordinator will be able to change their coordinator status to another teacher. Please note that the coordinator will only be able to switch their coordinator status if there is at least one other registered teacher at their school.

How to Register and Receive Program Updates
